UNION LOSS FROM 400 TO 500.

elsiming a magnificent victory.

Those who have watched the progress of events in Tennessee, have all along been aware that a hattle was impending, and liable to occar at any moment. We have known of the movement of troops, but from consideration of public policy have ferborned to mention them. We have known that Gen. Grant had shipped large numbers of his veterans to Louisville and Cincinnati to aid in repelling threatened Rebel invasion, and this knowledge has led to the fear that when the decisive moment about arrive, our army would be wanting. Happily these fears were groundless. "We have routed him, "horse, foot, and dragoons." We have slain and wounded from they hand dragoons." We have slain and wounded from the hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred few hundred to a thousand. We have taken 505 few hundred fe

United, they marched to the vicinity of the little marches, name remarkable for the keenest of appetown of Cotton Plant, whence they were to strike titles for eatables and drankables. The veracity and capacity of imbilition they exhibited defied description. Fully one-shied of the men were shockes. miended to cross the Tennessee, at Muscle Shouls, All seemed confident of uithoute success, and ready and thus form a junction with Gen. Bragge.

So far as can be learned, the enemy's forces must achieve it have exceeded 15,000-a welcome addition to Gen.

Gen. Grant heard of this project, and at once set thinself to defeat it. He proposed "to move upon the enemy's works," and this is how he did it. The proposed "to move upon the enemy's works," and this is how he did it. Gen. Resecrans's army, the one for-Gen. Ord, with his divisions, was sent to luan. Riemis on the Mobile and Ohio Railrond south of Carinth, and Juka is on the Charleston and Memphis Railrond east of Corinth.) Here were the two sides of the triangle. Reservans at Rienzi and Ord at Jaka, and Grant's army at Corinth, the apex.

Rossorans reached Rienzi without difficulty, but Rossorans reached Rienzi without difficulty, but Rossorans reached Rienzi without difficulty, but Riem is on the Mobile and Ohio Railrond south of in the cled Rienzi without difficulty, but old a bird to run directly into the let turned his course and left the sand Onio Railroad not far from the and Onio Railroad not far from the sand onio Railroad not far from burned it, just as the enemy's rear guard was leaving. although weary and footsore, did not rest, but esgerly sought the foe. They found him two miles east aka in the dire tion of the river, and here eed the hattle which has ended so gloriously As there was but an hour before darkness would settle upon the earth and cover, as a mantle, the contending armies, it was not deemed advisable to brine on a general engagement. There was sharmishing, first on one side then on the other, and the two armies, having surveyed each other, like two men preparing for a pugitistic encounter, seeking each their advantages, laid down upon the battle-field and slept. To the wearled soldiere, sleep with her healing wings, came tripping through the somber night. They reveled in sweet dreams of home and the dear ones left behind. To how many of these brave men would the morrow prove the occasion of that slumber which knows no

At daybrenk the fight was renewed and continued vigorously tid noon, when the enemy's line, wavering under a vigorous attack, gave way. Our forces bravely followed up their advantage, and soon the Rebel army broke and ran in wild confusion.

Our artillery hurled a deadly storm of tire up the fugitives, and the cavalry completed what it had began. The enemy were beaten, demoralized and

The Union army is now in pursuit. Two Rebel Generals were placed hors du combat. Gen. Little is killed and Gen. Whitfield is wounded and a prisoner.

The Union loss is large-probably four or five handred in killed and wounded. Of the casualtant nothing more is known.

THE SITUATION IN KENTUCKY.

Correspondential Perplexities Lutest Advices from Gen. Buell's Forces. Further PROCEAMATION.—All Countries within the city. The Processivite—The Composition, Strength, and Communders of Brings's Army—Fix

It is a Surface of Brings of B Junction with Kirby Smith's Division --A Council of War.

Inn Cor Exectal Correspondent Louisville, Sept. 21, 1863, The capitalation of our forces in the intrenchment of the line of the Louisvi le and Nashville Rail-toad, between Bacon Creek and Shepherdaville, has cut us off from nearly all sources of information as to the condition of affairs in Southern Kentucky and Tannesses. The "sphere of observation" of your tarrespendent is now necessarily confined to the ments on Green River, and the subsequent abandon-

A GREAT BATTLE AT IUHA. Posserans Achieves a Splendid Victory.

Vol. XXII....No. 6,702.

NEW-YORK, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1862.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

OUR ARMY STILL PURSUING.

The doings of Gen. Baell's forces continue to constitute the main subject of inquiry and speculation with everybody here. Before the foll of Manfords valle, the arrivals from Bowling Green were namerous overydry but since all the fords on Green. This community is just now jubilant over a brilliant victory achieved by Gen. Rosecrans over Gen. Price and his legions. Full particulars have not yet reached us, but enough is known to warrant us in claiming a magnificent victory. Those who have watched the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along them progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of events in Tennessne, have all along the progress of the tennand content the condition.

The doing along the intentation.

The doing al

and dragoons." We have slain and wounded from the hundred to a thousand. We have taken 500 five hundred to a thousand. We have taken 500 the hundred to a thousand. We have taken 500 the hundred to a thousand. We have captured six cutire batteries, 36 cannon, and a large army train. We are now pureously the enemy, and hope, before it be intermitted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted, to be able to announce the capture of the entire ted to an order to the form to definite idea, but think there were two when the form to definite idea, but think there were two the time to the time to the time. About 3 o'clock the following proclamation of Gov. Robinson was promultated.

About 3 o'clock the time tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

The would give a total of forty eight regiments of Gov. Robinson was promultated to the time tray.

The tray is the time tray.

About 3 o'clock the time tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

The tray is the time tray.

The tray is the time tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

The tray is the time tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

The tray is the time tray.

About 3 o'clock the tray.

The tray is the time tray.

The tray is the time tray.

The tray is the time tray.

The tray is the tray tray is the tray to the tray to the tray to the tray to the A glance at the map will show the position of our cress and the location of the enemy. Troops were at the march from Grand Junction to re-enforce in Price, who left Tapelo a week or two ago. Gen. Price, who left Topelo a week or two ago, were in rags, rather the worse for wear from forced wh > Brasile Gen. Bragg and the already mentioned year division connumbers, our informants saw Brig. Gens. Dunean, Chenthem, and Bustrod Johnson, Maj. Gen.

merly commanded by Gen. Pope, to Rienzi. Second, Trey were partied on Wednesday and Thursday, Gen. Ord, with his divisions, was sent to Inan. and started North after being provided with four rum Our Special Correspondent.

Tals was in the afternoon of Friday. Our army, The Climax of the Crisis Renched-The News of the Approach of Bragg's and Kirby Smith's United Armies upon Louisville - Exciting Orders of Gen. feet of the President's Proclamation.

Louisville, Sept. 23, 1862. So rapid are the strides of events in these parts at this the most critical stage of national affairs since the outbreak of the civil war, that letter-writing has grown to be a most thankless task, when even the telegraph is almost too slow for the rapidity with which the most startling intelligence is now crowding upon it. What will become of all the news, sinsm:

B. hereas, The defence of the city and the expansion of the first transfer of the city and the expansion of the first transfer of the city and the expansion of the first transfer of the city and the expansion of the first transfer of the city and the expansion of the first transfer of the city and the expansion of the first transfer of the city and the expansion of the city and the city my last letters in the face of the stirring tidings conveyed to you over the wires since yesterday noon—days before my remittances by mail will reach their Tenson, or such officer as he may designate for immediate as destinution !

I had just finished and mailed my vesterday's I had just finished and mailed toy yesterday's insulments of correspondence, when a walk through the business part of the city revealed to me striking the business part of the city revealed to me striking parts for the papers of the city revealed to me striking indications that something extraordinary must have occurred since the early morning hours. Every store was closed. Crowds of men and women were gathered in the streets and upon the sidewalks, and gathered in the streets and upon the sidewalks, and that he a Committee on healt of the city to had gathered in the streets and upon the sidewalks, and engaged in excited discussions. Mounted aids and order ice were dashing in every direction. Infantry, cavalry and artillery were everywhere seen in motion.

To my inquiries as to the meaning of this unitary or my inquiries as to the meaning of this unitary and artillery were everywhere seen in motion.

resid commotion. I received the most alarming resolutions passed, but carried out by only a small replies. "Buell is captured and Roussens killed"—"The whole Rebel army within a few miles of the city," and other ill-boding fragmentary resonances were recommended to me from the blanched with apprehension. But they evidently bore the stamp of untrust-tid the Governor and Mayor yesterday that if the worthness and exaggration. The only tangible Mayor's Office, Sopt 12, 1982.

HEADQUARTERS ARRY OF KRYTURET, J. L. COUNTY, Sopt. 22, 1992.

The women and children of this city will prepare to leave

By order of Gen. Nelson.

By order of Gen. Nelson.

J. EDWARD STAGET, A. A. A. O.

the Hon. James Guthrie, who proposed that, as the citizens had convened in response to the call of the Mayor, that gentleman should be called upon to pre-scotts, Resecrans learned of this diversion, and, not advance of Bragg's army to Green River, and preto be behind his enough in cuterprise, ke also started for loke. Resecrans had the advantage of distance, as he moved directly across the country between the two sides of the triangle, while Price had the adtwo sides of the triangle to the State Generals were absolutely hoodwarked.

A council of war was beld here vesterday afternoon by Generals Wright, Nelson, and Gilbert. Gen.
Wright returned to Cincinnati in the evening.

The Hon. James Guthrie followed Mr. Delpa, of-

The Hon. James Guthrie followed Mr. Delpa, of fering a preamble and resolutions, accompanied by stirring appeal to the (atriotier) of those present Louisville, he said, had ever been true to the Stars and Stripes. The flag of Washington had been the for upon the sucred field of Shilob. Mr. Guthric then presented the following preamble and resolu-tions, which were passed with a shout of enthavacer is with the Union forces, and it is the duty of the route of the city to furnish them all the aid in their pow vice.

Resolved, That all able-bedled citizens of the city be reworthness and exacgeration. The only tangible fact that I could client was a bandfull, and to have been just circulated all over the city, and containing the following exciting mandates of the military and civil authorities: PROCLAMATION. -All catteens are hereby directed will be seen from the following order:

STATE OF SCHOOL THE THE STATE OF ASSAULT OF A STATE OF

and equip them.

If who ish to comply with this order will be deemed disa, and immediate steps will be taken to provide for all such a some that well prevent them from carrying out their alterious programatio.

Companies from the county will also be provided for by renatural these fleedquartots.
By green of Acting Hing-Gen. GRAY.
L. M. SEMPLE, A. A. G. The most active preparations are making for the defeat of the enemy's supposed intentions upon the city. All the forces to the South of it have been or dered back to its immediate vicinity. Major-tien. Gilbert was engaged all afternoon in selecting and the forces to the South of the control Tennesses. The "sphere of observation" of your terrespondent is now necessarily confined to the City of Louisville and immediate vicinity, and bation was about. Interviews with the Guerral defeat of the enemy's supposed intentions upon the commanding had failed to recure the desired information. In answer to interrognatories upon the subject of the order directing the removal of the women and children by parvised or escaped prisoners, or figure Unionists. The military authorities live on the subject of the order directing the removal of the women and children from the city, Major-Gen. Neinon nearly drew limstiff up to the full of his majestic hight, and less than forty thousand more, it is understood, with the added to this vast force from and repelling, only spoke: "I Headquarths Anny of Revitory, Louisvilla, Sept. 2, 1927.

Chymnac Onder No. 17.—Sunders: Intelligence resched no that the Redul horder who are now ravoging fair and of Kestaniy are sivancing to attack this city. We will give them a bloody welcome? Let every man the importance of the occasion, and do his whole duty. A little patients and energy are all that is required retentive to the commands of your officers. Keep steady your ranks, and the coolly and with aim, and victory will read by.

chy by the military and civil authorities, it is the opinion of your correspondent, and of the lending largeter Robels to flee in every direction. Afterward citizens and many military men high in command, a Robel officer rode in from Bolivar, Miss., and that there is no more certainty of an attack upon officed an apology for the outrage and a promise that there is no more certainty of an attack upon officed an apology for the outrage and a promise that the extraordinary measures adopted by Gen.

Noticen—such as the removal of the women and chi-place. The fort back of the town is progressing.

Noticen—such as the removal of the women and chi-place. The fort back of the town is progressing.

coming, as it did, so titled unexpected, upon the Pre-Slavery Describts of Kentucky was intense construction. But a love growl is already smilled, and I am persuaded that unless the nearness of the enemy stiffes expressions of dissatisfaction for the The Hon. John M. Delph accordingly took the present, a howl of denunciation will be raised in-

FROM HELENA, ARRANSAS.

Arrival of Union Prisoners-Robel Manitransports, containing Union prisoners, namely: the rald, Champion No. 3, and J. S. Chells that the whole 309 men are crowded on her, with poor accommodations, while the other and larger boals return without taking on any of the soldiers, they thus the Commissioner, Capt. Lazelle, of the regular army, who is charged with the duty of effecting these excharges, to blane for this, and allege it as another evidence of the want of sympathy it as another evidence of the want of sympathy. manity of the regular army officers toward the

I determination to enter the Rebel army fight it out to the last. They return hetter health than when they were captured, and wait make better soldiers. Our Northern air, and

At Memphis, the other day, there was a discreting exhibition of Secosh sympathy toward the keep open to another force. The once offered providential, prisoners, as they remained at the hading a few hours. About one hundred of the ladies of that entry cane down on the levee, and brought retreatments to the Rebel prisoners—to which there was no objection, had it not been for their conduct afterward. As the boats by in the stream, there female Robels remained on the shore waving their bundlerchiefs, considered.

Capture of a Company of the Twenty-third remained on the shore waving their bandar relates, throwing kisses from their tips, and displaying Second colors upon their persons in a minner entrageously offensive to loyal citizens.

It was matter of surprise tha under Gen. Sherman's abioticistration of affairs such things are allowed. Nothing could tend more to encourage these deladed firstell prisoners to return to the Confederate army than these expressions of approval and sympathy from the women of Memphis. A little of Gen. Hallock's wholesome treatment at St. Leuis, or Gen. Butler's at New-Orleans, would be healthful to these Rebel sympathizers in Memphis.

Among our returned prisoners, there were several who gave meinteresting narratives of their experiences in Dixie Land. Capt. J. B. Weir was ascoustic be went service of Gen. Poppers. New Martin.

figure Unionists. The military authorities live on the city. Major Gen. Neinon nearly are short commons of intelligence. That this control double and apprehensions of both the Amilitade of reports, mostly of an unfavorable and in is altogether impossible to distinguish between the first altogether impossible to distinguish between the first altogether impossible to distinguish between the first altogether impossible to distinguish between the seven that the seven in the city of the was engaged all atternoon in relecting and children from the city. Major Gen. Neinon nearly assigning proper positions to the different corps. No brought tack again, after which he was sent to Common finement. Here he was taken out to be shot as a spy, and children from the city. Major Gen. Neinon nearly assigning proper positions to the different corps. No brought tack again, after which he was sent to Common finement. Here he was taken out to be shot as a spy, and throught tack again, after which he was sent to Common finement. Here he was taken out to be shot as a spy, and children from the city. Major Gen. Neinon nearly are now concertated and put in close concoust and proper positions to the different corps. No because the other to the different corps. No because of the control of the city thousand more are now concertated to this case than forty thousand men are now concertated to this case that the several and put in close concerts the several put the city the several put the city the several positions to the different corps. No because the concerts the several put the city the several with Kirby Smith easier, and transfer his holiillarved army from the exhausted Green Kiver country nearty to the exchausted Green Kiver formship nearty to the formship nearty to the Condition act, but was liberal and humane toward the formship nearty to the exchausted Green formship nearty to the formship nearty to the Condition of this case can have a man of the most genial disposition, attractive bodiety, and usefulled life—a sincere Christian above all—Cel. Larned was deservedly respected and belard was about crossing on Saturday and Sunday. I undestand that Gen. Nelson believes the helm d Bragg. The best informed parties see this that it is partef the plan of Geas. Nelson and Buell to draw the enthal advices from Gen.

Held made no attack upon Brugg with of Green

FEOM MARPER'S FEERY.

of duty, the life which he had vowed to the service of his country, choled lingeringly and prenaturely uway.

"A man of the most genial disposition, attractive society, and usefulled life—a sincere Christian above all—Cel. Larned was deservedly respected and beloved by all who had the happiness of knowing him.
May the Army, which he was so worthy an example."

FEOM MARPER'S FEERY.

Couch's Division. and the return of Gen. Curtis is earnestly desired by of duty, the life which he had vowed to the service many. His concess was hardly up to the Confiscation act, but was libered and humane toward the many.

Plans-The Attempt to Take Mactins. ", eaks of the command:-

the From Our Special Correspondent. Cotton Plant station, ten miles below, and made dagonally across the country for Iuka. Through his stated a vast scotte, Rosecrans learned of this diversion, and, not wishing or daring to make anything like an offersive movement on a large scale. Instead of pursuing its retreat toward Richmond, as seems to have been extensive moved calmiy along his Brigate, superinpected, the Robel army halted in a position of tending their position and stendiness they invariably strength, not many miles from the river bank, and sainted him with close sharp shots. The Robels to the control of waited the approach of the Union forces. Instead or crossing the Potomac in pursuit, McClellan has day mounts. The rebel before our front retreated to Williamsport, and being closely pressed frew up in the order of battle Saturday. car Union Soldiers in Dixie—Fing of Truce Violated—Affairs at Effective.

Frame Violated—Affairs at Effective.

Frame Union Soldiers at Effective.

Frame Violated—Affairs at Effective.

Frame Union Soldiers at Effective.

Frame Violated—Affairs at Effective.

Frame Union Soldiers at Effective.

Frame Violated—Affairs at Effective.

Frame Union Soldiers at Harper's Ferry, in positions, whitch, a glutos and shell "right smartly," but find the ground becoming too but for them they were glut to make their way across the Potomac into Union Soldiers and Soldiers at Effective.

Virginia. And to Couch's Division belongs the marting the ground become at Union Soldiers at Effective.

Virginia. And to Couch's Division belongs the marting the ground become at the ground become at the ground become at the ground become at t

Lee, with his usual advoitness, has left to Meonly the choice of inaction or of attack with Go their positions reversed. If he pursue the Rebels, of non-commissioned officers and privates confined pringle. The number of prisoners is 335, 26 of them subjection. Our Generals assure us that they will, with all the force they have at their command, of fend the city against the approach of this insolant for. We have advices from Gen. Bue'll to-day, who informs us that if we can hold the enemy in check in the Emerald has only the officers on board of the Emerald has only the officers on board in the Emerald has only the officers on board in the positions reversed. If he pursue the Rebels, the must fight as they fought last Wednesday, with the Potomac in his rear. If he does not pursue, the family in the Potomac in his rear. If he does not pursue, the family in the Potomac in his rear. If he does not pursue, the family in the Potomac in his rear. If he does not pursue, the family in the Potomac in his rear, and in addition to ender is much pursue, the Potomac in his rear. If he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, and in the graves of absence without leaves and drunkenness, and the Fotomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear. If he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he does not pursue, the Potomac in his rear, if he potomac i Valley, their amplest depot of supples, and their rendiest line of retreat. Unless they are again to abandon Northern and Eastern Virginia, they are in the most central strategic position; for they not only is being prepared for transmission to the Judge Advocate General, through the Adjutant General. Western Virginia.

On their way up, the fleet met few other boats going down, with 8,000 Secesh prisoners on beard, from Camp Douglar, Camp Fatter, and seewher. They know of no prisoners below to be returned for these, many having been paroled. The behaves against the Confederates will of course the properly adjusted.

The returning Seceth prisoners that have passed here from our Northern encampments looked in the facts above stated it is difficult to see what value or security Martinsburg could have. A single corps. or second Markinson or Northern encampments looked in fine as the experiment aboved, could neither attack the together with the sick and wounded, as the experiment aboved, could neither attack the together with the sick and wounded, onlice or are attached to her as were public officers are attached to her as were public. army again, enemy or defend heelf.

pulsion of the Rebels from Maryland the campaign Secretary Welles went out in her. of M. Clellan is at an end. Whether offensive move-Under San's rations, have agreed with their con-sil ations. I wish we could say as much for our own soldiers, confined in Southern prisons, although the number on these returning transports are looking ments are hereafter made must be, on this theory, Wan,—Out of a loyal population of not more than At Memphis, the other day, there was a disgust- and Manassas Gaps, a route to the Rebel rear is still at a blow has been suffered to pass. When and how gratifying. the next shall arrive may even yet be profitably RECEBUTS FOR THE VERMOST BRIGADE.-The Rebels.

Pantanguenta, Webberday, Sept. 25, 1872.

A letter from Corporal Gaw, of the Gymmet Zonaves of this city, Company B, 2.-d Pennsylvania Regiment, reports the capture of an entire company, with three exceptions, while on special service on econd writ of habeas corpus was issued vesterday by Judge Hall, and served on U. S. Marshal Chase.

The Marshal declined to acknowledge the jurisfiction of the Court, and we learn that the prisoner land, which was addressed by George P. Hauston, e.q., the "Democratic" candidate for Hamilton, e.q., the "Democratic" candidate for Congress. The speech was dell and lame, but the The Marchal declined to acknowledge the jurisdicclass men are received. It is expected that the regiment will be recruited to its maximum number within the next two weeks. The most of the towns of Westchester and Putnam are paying from $100 to $125 bounty for recruits to this regiment. Any information in relation to the regiment may be obtained at the barracks, of Col. John P. Jenkins or Major Daniel C. Brigge.

Obituary. PAYMASTER-GENERAL B. P. LARNED.

A few days ago our Washington dispatches con-REBEL LOSS FROM 500 TO 1,000.

What is true and false from the absolute absence of a time worthy means of test. People have lost all dependence upon the demands on the quentum properties of the most confidence in the course of the Munfordville affair, when the makes of our military fortunes positively persisted with the world related by the world related by the army of the course of the most continued day and might.

LARGE NUMBER OF CANNON CAPIURED.

TWO REBEL GENERALS ANONG THE SLAIN.

TWO REBEL GENERALS ANONG THE SLAIN.

The doings of Cen. Baell's forces see of the colleges of the course of the colleges of the course of the colleges of the course of The appearance of the college of the second community of the solders of resolution, and their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the case which their several States have and relatively to the plants of Leukville the glory wen by their precisions to the rank which their several States have conferred on them.

I was shown several specimens of Southern shirt-producers shoulder to shoulder we will meet the chemy, and rival on the plains of Lossiville the glory won by cut te low societies at Fot Doneshon, Shibon, Pan Rudge, and the South is flooded with this worthless currency. Almost mything passes for money, but tribes accurately high. If you offer a piece of corn, you always get a reduction of four hundred per cent. Capt. Wher showed me a list of prices at Columbing papers:

HELDQUARTERS, ARRY OF RENCEST, Columbins, Serie, 22, 1962.

Charman Onoun No. 17.—Women and children who may wish to bear the city, in parameters of Orders No. 21, with the worth clear that the the passing of precase not in the inflience supply of the Government will be closely restricted. By endered

J. Enward Street, A. A. G.

The fertiles being monopolized by the Government, two cathal boils have been provided for their timesportation to the Indiana side. the death of Major-General Towson, in July, 1854, auted be snece ded, by right of seniority, to the Paymaster-Generalship of the army, with the rank of Colonel, a > Lowered now than there was a fortesight age, and that the extraordinary measures adopted by Ges.

>
> There is nothing of interest transpiring at this place. The fort back of the town is progressing, drn and Government property—are uncalled for by the real state of affects.
>
> I have positive intelligence from Nelson County up to yesterday marning. It appears from at that the main body of the Robel army in that the main body of the Robel army in that the main body of the Robel army of the policy of Gen. Steels is to employ the men, and let the slave-owners come and get the women and children. In some instances it is said that claimants have been added by the authority with guards are solutely persevered at his post, in spite of failing strength and the entreaties of friends that he would spice himself, until, having thoroughly reorganized by the shive-atchers, which is virtually a law of Coogress.
>
> I manouncing his death to the Army, the Secretary of Mar says: "Already an old man, when the rebellion or the out, had he simply consulted his own feelings he would gladly have retired; but well knowing that his services were now become more interest and children. In some instances it is said that claimants have been added by his authority with guards and teams to take the slaves when pointed out, and transport them beyond the lines, in the direction desired by the shive atchers, which is virtually a law of the work of the work of the work of the work of the same than the same three completes and the same three completes are said that elements and children. In some instances it is said that claimants are said that claimants rendition of fugitives to their masters—forbidden by see things working in it to his satisfaction, his over-

A soldler that was in the field near Sharpeburgh and at Williamsport, in Conch's Division, thus

" Gen. Couch behaved gallantly in watching over burg—The Opportunity to Crush the interests and efficiency of his Division. His Rebel Army Gone.

Bekenders, Gen. John C. chrane, Gen. Howe and Ger. Devans with the officers and men did their Harran's Frank, Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1862.

The two armies lie fronting each other on either de the Potomac, on a line strucking from Williams.

A general Court Marrial has been in session on

DEPARTURE OF THE UNITED STATES STEAMER When Fitz John Porter's corps attempted the Massachuserts.-The U. S. Dispatch steamer officers are attached to her as were published, Capt. It only remains then to suppose that with the ex. Cooper still commanding. Official dispatches from > 150,000, Western Virginia has furnished over 16,000 volunteers for the war. Considering how many of the prominent men of Western Virginia have enlisted in the Rebel cause, this result is decidedly steamer Francis Skiddy brought down on Thursday morning 333 recruits for the various regiments of the Vermont Brigade, in charge of Lieut. Sawyer Pennsylvania (Zounve) Regiment by the of the 6th Regiment. The squad left Barlington st Ha. m. on Wednesday.

GEN. JOE JOHNSTON. -The report that the Rebel Gen. Jeseph E. Johnston had died of his wounds is contradicted by the following note from " Dixie" to The Grenada Appeal, dated Richmond, the 8th inst .: The Case of the Rev. Judson D. Renedict.

Burrato, N. Y., Wednerday, Sept. 25, 1862.
In the case of the Rev. Judson D. Benedict, n second grain of the Rev. Judson D. Benedict, n without comment as to its probability.

CHEERS FOR JEFF. DAVIS!-A "Democratio" Congress. The speech was duri and tame, but the meeting was somewhat culivened by cheers for Jeff Davis, which were heartily given, as we are informed. We are not informed that the traitorous cheers were in any wise rebucked. Those who gave them understand the "Democratic" movement to them understand the "Democratic" movement to be what it really is—a diversion in favor of Jeff. Davis—and so go straight to the mark by cheering for him. They have not hypocrisy enough to conceal the real designs of their leaders.